WA Sponsors Largest Bake Sale In History

CROSSFIELD—Senior W.A. of the United Church held one of the biggest and best bake sales in its history, when the association realized $83.16 and everything sold. The tea tables netted $41.50, the coffee bar $17.10, and to date the bazaar articles totalled $200. The fish pond brought $24.55, with scores of articles for future fun.

Much bazaar work is still available and can be seen at the home of Mrs. Bert Lilley. Articles could be used for shower, birthday gifts, and Christmas or wedding presents and will be sold on request—as priced at bazaar.

Everyone needs advice, but few can take it.

Card of Thanks

The President and Members of the United Church W.A. wish to express a grateful thanks to all who helped to make their bazaar, tea, fish pond, and sale of home cooking such a wonderful success. Thanks for work, for donations, and especially for patronage.

Ball Starts Rolling For Crossfield's Old-Timer Round-Up

CROSSFIELD—Hello and Howdy, Old Timers! November has come once again and your executive has once more started the committees to work in connection with the big Annual Roundup that is so dear to the heart of every Old Timer. We want you all to know that a sumptuous turkey banquet is in the making and will be in the capable hands of the CWL again this year. Well over 300 were served with courtesy and dispatch last year to a dinner that would grace a king's table (if he were lucky), and we are sure that you are anticipating another such banquet — the date November 26 (Wednesday), at 6 p.m., in the Community Hall.

You will know that an undertaking of this kind requires careful planning and considerable help so if any of you are asked for a donation of home cooking we are sure, as old timers, you will oblige. A small courtesy of this kind is what helps to perpetuate the spirit of pioneers and helps also to keep our organization functioning on an even keel.

A program is being prepared for your pleasure and is in the hands of competent members. There will also be time for visits with the old friend whom perhaps you have not seen for many years. There will be a feature presentation as usual, which varies every year.

We will also observe a minute's silence for our departed members and your secretary-treasurer will record the names of any departed old timers, in districts that our records might have missed. Please phone or write names to President Casey or your secretary.

Please keep the date of Wednesday, November 26, uppermost in your minds or, better still, mark your calendar. This is your night, old friend, so come and bring another eligible old timer and enjoy a real round-up. The Mountaineers will again supply the music and you will remember the music that fills the air when Mrs. Foster, Lea Lewis and Joe Ferguson and the gang start to play.

So long Old Timers! till the 26th.

Evelyn Lilley, your secretary-treasurer.

Dewey Casey, your president

Plans Laid For Round-Up

CROSSFIELD—Nineteen members of the Crossfield and District Old Timers' were at a meeting called by the president, Mr. Dewey Casey, on Monday, October 27, at the home of the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Bert Lilley.

At this meeting all the necessary committees were formed for the purpose of making November 26 another highlight in the annals of old timers. Dance music was confirmed; instructions for usual advertising and cards; decoration and program committees appointed.

Another meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stafford November 15.

FIRST OLD-TIMERS' ROUND-UP HELD; 30 CROSSFIELD OLD-TIMERS PRESENT

CARSTAIRS — On Oct. 29, the Carstairs and District Old-Timers' Association held its first Round-up with a banquet in the United Church. Twice last year prevailing cold forced the association to postpone its activity. The turkey and chicken banquet with all the trimmings was served by members of the United Church and was cooked to perfection. The table motif favored Hallowe'en and pretty pumpkin candles glowed on every table. Many old-timers enjoyed a special visit with an old friend or relative who had made the effort to be present on old-timer's night.

The program was held in the hall and John Riddle, president, officiated. He welcomed all members of the organization warmly, but was disappointed that there was not a larger attendance of old-timers from Carstairs. Mr. Dewey Casey was called to the front where he voiced fraternal greetings from the Crossfield old-timers and extended an invitation to be on hand for Crossfield Roundup on Wednesday, November 24.

Mr. Howard Hammell, M.P., spoke a few words and, in his reminiscences of the good old days, verbally honoured the pioneers for their stalwart efforts and unfailing energy in the struggle of colonization; their patient endurance of hardships and suffering to leave to us a sacred heritage, which, he hoped, all would value, and persist in fulfilling the objectives for which our fathers strove.

A pleasing sing-song was led by Mr. Robertson, and much enjoyed.

Mrs. McTavish, 87 years young, had the pleasure of being the oldest old-timer lady present. Mr. and Mrs. Stearns took a bow for being the oldest old-time married couple present, and Bill Moore, resident since 1896, was pronounced the oldest old-timer present.

Mr. Robertson, talented baritone soloist, held an attentive audience when he sang the beloved old song, so suitable for the occasion, "Mother Machree," and as an encore, "How I Envyed McGinty." He was accompanied by Miss M. Carey. For a further encore he offered a Harry Lauder monologue and received a hearty ovation.

By this time the Mountaineers put in an appearance and the remainder of the evening was spent at dancing the old-time dances. A tempting mid-night lunch was served.

48th Sale Show Held

CALGARY — Grand champion, Handsome Ruth of Skillymarne, Aberdeen Angus, took the Junior Championship when the Fall Sale and Show of Cattle, Sheep and Swine opened in Calgary at the livestock pavilion. She was entered by K. S. Gibb of Killam. Winner of the Calgary District Hereford Club Special was Victor Watson of Aldric.

A total of 735 animals were entered in this 48th annual show. The animals represented some of the best blood lines in the province and this is considered one of the highest quality female shows on record. Prior to the sale, selection committees culled animals nominated on the farms.

Mr. Gibb's entry came first in the Heifer Class and third in the Heifer Junior Yearling Class.

TOWN TO OBSERVE ARMISTICE

CROSSFIELD — There will be an Armistice Memorial Service in the Crossfield Memorial Hall on Tuesday, November 11, at 10:45 a.m. which is open to all and it is hoped that the pastors of Crossfield churches will be able to participate in the program. The members of the Canadian Legion

Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Mason are the proud parents of a baby girl, born October 22 in the Holy Cross Hospital. She bears the name Maureen Adele.

Mr. and Mrs. Lefty Huddle, Claresholm (nee Gladys Ruddy), and baby were visitors at the Ruddy farm last week.

Mrs. Vera Aldred assisted with the sale of work in the Community hall when the WA featured their annual bazaar.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Casey and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie McNaughton spent the past week-end visiting in Great Falls, U.S.A., making the trip by motor.

It seems that a couple of lines were misplaced in the last issue. The article should have read: "Mrs. Margaret Wigle and Mrs. W. McCrimmon of Calgary were in attendance to enjoy the district meeting and a reunion of sisters of the three links."

Crossfielders Attend Funeral

CROSSFIELD — On Wednesday, October 29, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stafford attended the funeral of Bill Brooks, whose wife was the former Audrey Brown of Crossfield. Many Crossfielders were acquainted with the late Mr. Brooks, who always accompanied his wife to Crossfield Old Timers.

He was fatally injured in the head when he fell from a scaffold as he was engaged in carpentry work in Calgary.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

EDITORIALS

Master Farm Families

Once again we pause to congratulate the Hon. David A. Ure, Minister of Agriculture, on the Master Farm Family plan carried on by his department to honour the Alberta farming industry. By comparison to farming any other Alberta business is of dwarf size, even including the booming oil business.

Community Publications, publishers of this paper, are proud of the fact that three of these families live in districts served by one of our community papers. The Edmonton Sun serves the Winterburn farming district near Edmonton, home of the E. R. Lewis family. The Mundare Star, a new comer to the Alberta weekly field this year, is circulated in the John Skrypitsky home town and district of Mundare, and the Beiseker Times is well known to farmers of the Beiseker district, where the J. H. Schmaltz family are also well and favourably known.

The Radio License Fee Farce

The Liberal party's advisory council, meeting in Ottawa last week, urged the government to abolish the $2.50 radio license fee. It's a good thing if the government will do it and it's about time.

Proponents of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation as an independent branch of government services argue that the only way to keep it independent is to have a separate radio license fee which shall be paid by the radio owners, and not have the costs of the CBC paid from the general funds of the government.

We have argued that a tax is a tax and regardless of what tax supports the CBC it is still dependent on the government for its revenues to exist. It will be just as easy for the Canadian people to pay for the CBC through income taxes as through a special radio tax, and have the terrific costs of keeping hundreds of men employed in going around collecting this tax.

The principle of the radio tax is totally foreign to our modern Canadian ideas and ideals. A small army of "investigators" is kept busy each year patrolling the streets and highways and byways of our country checking up on every citizen for his radio license fee. It isn't sufficient to buy a license—the radio owner is supposed to keep it ready for inspection at all times, and having a license doesn't in any way save one from the snoopings of the Department of Transport investigators.

A nation with over $300,000,000 surplus shouldn't have to stoop to a $2.50 nuisance radio license fee. There is no reason why hundreds of able-bodied men should be kept from doing useful work while Canadians, rich and poor alike are taxed the same fee to keep them on the government payroll.

Wheat Quality

Western Canada's big wheat crop is turning out to be one of good quality, according to a recent report from the board of grain commissioners.

It is expected that 65 per cent of the production will grade 1 and 2 northern compared with 6 per cent last year and a ten-year average of 70.3 per cent. Last year only 104 of 1 per cent graded 1 northern, 5.6 per cent 2 northern. About 20 per cent of the crop will grade 3 and 4 northern.

It now appears that the protein content of the crop will be better than originally expected. No. 1 wheat has an average protein content of 13.2 per cent, No. 2 northern 12.7 per cent and 3 northern 12.5 per cent. The long-term average for Canadian wheat is 13.6 per cent.

Note and Comment

Stocks of grain in prairie country elevators totalled 141.7 million bushels on July 24th, compared with 99.0 million bushels in stock on the same date a year ago.

Remembrance Day, 1952

By REV. GEORGE W. CAMPBELL
Pastor, MacDonald Baptist Church, Edmonton

Tuesday, November 11 will find most places of business closed, and in many places groups of our people will gather to remember and honor the men and women who gave themselves as casualties of war. In many a home there will be sad hearts because of the loved ones who sacrificed, suffered and died for their love of homeland, family, and freedom.

Many of us who are older recall when November 11 was Armistice day, and the high hopes that seemed to be symbolized in that day, and the League of Nations. For such as us this day brings heavy hearts and troubled minds for we have seen those hopes dashed to the ground in a second world conflict and we realize the terrible danger of atomic war.

As I write this on a beautiful Indian summer day I remember, many years ago, the parade of school children to the memorial in my home town. I can still recall some of the mingled feelings of hope and reverence as we stood for the silent minute. Vivid, too, in memory are the words inscribed to the memory of the dead: "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

They were noble words, even to a boy, and it was only years later that I realized that they were not first written for those war dead, but for one who laid down His life, not on a battlefield, but on a cross. As I think back I realize that today when the troubled condition of our world, and the disillusionment that has come with the failure of our magnificent schemes for peace has left so many wondering whether there is any purpose in history and any meaning to life, there is no more needed remembrance than that, because the death of Christ answers once and forever the great questions of history.

There is a God, He cares for men such as us, and in spite of the evil men may do He still works His purposes out, for the One who died on a cross at the hand of wicked men is He who three days later rose in triumph over all the forces of hate and evil.

Ridgway On War Danger

General Matthew B. Ridgway, Supreme Allied Commander in Europe, recently held his first press conference at SHAPE and reported: "There is no reliable evidence known to me upon which we can justify the conclusion that the potential threat of armed aggression currently confronting us has been any way abated."

Ridgway issued this warning at the same time he declared that the military goal of 50 divisions and 4,000 combat aircraft—which had been set at Lisbon earlier this year by NATO powers—was within "capacity" of the Allies. But he added that whether they will achieve the goal is "speculative."

It is obvious from Ridgway's remarks that he considers the situation in Europe more serious than many of the European Governments, which have been squabbling about the task of financing the rearmament program. In fact, it has only recently become known that the governments of some European nations are now concluding that the 50-division goal cannot be met.

This is a repetition of the same things which have happened in Europe, and in NATO too often in recent years. On this Ridgway had the following comment: "The military means available to us for carrying out the defensive purposes of NATO continue to be seriously inadequate in certain vital categories."

Thus, more than four years after the Marshall Plan was begun, and more than a year after the NATO organization was set up, the Allies in Europe still have no solid front and the latest military goal is apparently not to be met. The Supreme Commander warns that the danger of Russian aggression is just as great, however, and it might be—as it usually is in the case of democracies—that it will take an actual attack to stir the NATO powers into a whole-hearted effort.

ALL CLEAN IN ARGENTINE

In a recent issue of your paper you refer to Argentina as Latin Fascism. Every once in a while we see articles like this in other papers, too.

I wonder why?

Argentina has managed to stay out of war and destruction which is more than we can say for ourselves here in North America.

I was in Argentina a few years ago and found the people happy, peace-loving and their only desire was to be left in peace. They have not the class distinction that you see in some parts of North America.

So, maybe we have enough dirt in front of our own door if we wish to do any cleaning up.

THE HOPEFUL

I give a little sigh . . . inside, For all the contests I have tried, And all the golden dreams I've spun, Things I could do, if I had won.

But dreams are such elusive things, And substance lacking, soon take wings, Though wheels of fortune I would spin, Fate never deems that I should win.

I give a little sigh . . . and then, Another contest? Where's my pen?

APPRECIATE GIFTS

After enjoying reading your paper, we send it to our son who, too, gets much pleasure from it. We especially appreciate the only way this paper gives us to know what is going on in the municipality's affairs.

May we take this opportunity to thank all those who were so kind as to send us so many vegetables all summer. It was like a real garden coming to us without trouble, so we didn't miss the one we were unable to make this year, and we appreciate it very much.

SAYS WE'RE DEGENERATE

A recent Voicer "Converted to S.C.", blames Ottawa for high taxes. "Ratepayer" advises we have all become sycophants with hypocrisy in our daily lives. In the same issue the editor states we have freedom of the press and no political persecution here in Alberta.

All this is typical of Alberta's degeneracy. Political victimization of the press and personal freedom of assembly is rampant here. We live under the Union Jack and those who should "defend the right" are making Alberta a police state. Is there any denial to this?

FRENCH GIRLS SCORNE

In answer to those four dashing airmen stationed in France who told the Voice that Canadian girls don't even rate next to Parisian beauties, let me say that they must be blind to the fact that French girls are out for what they can get. I suggest that when they get out of service, they don't come crying to us "unappealing" Canadian girls.

CALLS POLITICS CORNY

Newspapers could boost their circulations if they'd show more pictures of political celebrities greeting each other. These shots are funnier than the comics, and have more ham in them. The politicians invariably pose grinning like Cheshire cats. Perhaps they're thinking of all the yokels they're going to snare into voting for them.

Fear Rats May Be Common In Alberta In 25 Years

W. Lobay, Supervisor of Crop Protection, Alberta Department of Agriculture, warns that a slackening of interest can mean that rats will be well established in all parts of this province in the next 20 to 25 years. It took 30 years for them to cross Saskatchewan, says Mr. Lobay. Rats first invaded Canada over a century ago when the first white settlers started coming in. They have slowly followed man westward since.

As far as Western Canada is concerned, rats were first noticed at Emerson in 1900. By 1914 reports of rats came from Delor-aine, Winnipeg, Portage La Prairie and Brandon. The movement
rats were seen near Yorkton, Sask.
In 1929, rats were established in Regina and Moose Jaw. Slowly but surely, the westward movement reached Saskatoon and Swift Current by 1935-39. At the end of the next ten years (1940-49) the movement westward saw rats established within ten miles of the Alberta boundary in the region through Lovrina and South towards Alask.

In 1950 the first colony of rats in Alberta was discovered west of Alask, and since that time effort has been made to destroy every rat that made its appearance in the province. To keep the rats out of Alberta, co-operation of everyone in the province will be needed.
Any signs of rats should be reported immediately to the nearest pest control officer so that prompt action can be taken.

Beiseker Lions Club Honors L. L. Schmaltz

During the week of November 5th-15th, Lions Clubs throughout the world are honoring their International Counsellors, and Beiseker has the proud distinction of having one of these Counsellors as a member of their club in the person of Lion L. L. "Louie" Schmaltz.

Lion Louie is a charter member of the Beiseker Lions Club, having joined at its inception on May 15th, 1945, and was sponsored by Will Holbein (The Old Man of the Mountain). Louie became president of the Beiseker Lions Club that year, serving in that capacity for the years 1945-1946 and 1946-1947.

He was elected Zone Chairman for District 37C for the years 1946-1947 and 1947-1948, and received the honor of being District Governor for that district in 1948-1949, and is now International Counsellor for Lions International. Lion Louie has not only served Lions International faithfully and well but has done a tremendous amount of work in his own community and as member of the local Beiseker Lions Club. He has served on the Board of Directors of the club for a number of years, was Lion Tail Twister for the year 1950-1951, and has been chairman of the Beiseker Lions Band Committee since the band was sponsored by the club, and chairman of other committees. He also launched and brought to successful conclusions two car raffles in aid of the local Memorial Hall and the Beiseker Lions Band. Louie has always shown great interest and has given valued help in every project the Beiseker Lions Club has sponsored.

"We, the members of the Beiseker Lions Club, salute Lion 'Louie' Schmaltz and are proud to honor him as our International Counsellor."

Benefit Dance Being Held For Accident Victim

KEOMA—Eleven different clubs in the surrounding districts are sponsoring a benefit dance in the Keoma hall on November 6 for Alton McCollister who was severely injured in a self-propelled combine accident. He will be in hospital for some time yet.

This fine weather has surprised many. Mrs. W. Midyeth reports her young turkeys have started laying eggs.

Many farmers in this district have gone moose and deer hunting.

Mrs. F. McKenzie held a Tupperware demonstration on Wednesday, Oct. 29, at the home of Mrs. L. Holdsworth with Mrs. D. Miner as assistant hostess. A game called "Be kind to your neighbor" was played, with prizes going to Mrs. R. McKay, Mrs. L. Holdsworth, and Mrs. B. Spellrem. A nice lunch was served by the hostesses. The door prize went to Mrs. G. Weldig.

Ladies' Curling Club Holds Annual Banquet

BEISEKER—The annual banquet and election of officers for 1952-53, for the Beiseker Ladies' Curling Club was held on Monday at the home of Mrs. L. L. Schmaltz.

Following the dinner, a very enjoyable evening of whist was played with honors going to Mrs. Simmonds and Miss Victoria Hagel; a prize for hidden score went to Mrs. L. Bunyan.

Officers for the coming year are President, Mrs. L. Brosteaux; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. L. Bunyan.

Oat Crop Yields 110 Bus. Per Acre

BON ACCORD—Logan Carleton, a district farmer, reports that a 30-acre field produced 110 bushels of oats per acre. On a 12-acre oat field the yield was 106 bushels per acre.

Despite our modern civilization, most human beings give the bulk of their efforts in exchange for the necessities of life, and some even fail to get them.

240-lb. Pig Won At Turkey Shoot

BEISEKER—A very successful Turkey and Ham Shoot was held on Sunday, Nov. 2, sponsored by the Beiseker Gun Club. Many turkeys and hams were won by marksmen, both in town and out. The grand prize, 240-lb. pig, was won by Lou Brosteaux of Beiseker.

"A very valuable citizen"

When a bank manager was transferred recently a group of citizens wrote the bank in tribute to his sense of public service:

"During the time he was here, we found him to be a very valuable citizen. He always took a deep interest in our community, so we feel we have lost a valuable asset. However, we feel sure that his replacement will be made with a man of similar calibre."

A bank man, by the very nature of his work, becomes part of the life around him. During his training in various branches, and as he takes on growing responsibilities, he learns more and more about people and how his bank can help them. And he brings to his community his personal readiness to serve in any way he can.

LETTERS TO LOUISA

Dear Louisa:

I live with my daughter but I have my own income and can afford my own apartment, if I wish. We get along very nicely and I am very fond of my grandchildren.

There is only one thing about the situation I dislike. My daughter and her husband feel free to go out any evening. They never ask if it suits me to stay with the children—they just take it for granted that grandmother will be here.

I am thinking of making a change. Two out of three times I would be home when they wish to go but I do think they should find out if it suits me before they make definite plans.

What do you think I should do?
GRANDMOTHER.

Answer:

Why don't you be frank with your daughter and tell her that you have not completely retired from the world as yet and have plans of your own, occasionally. Tell her that while you are usually glad to stay with the children, you must ask her to consult you before making definite plans for you to be home.

If she pays no attention to this and expects you to be there, one evening, when you have something else to do, just tell her that you are sorry but you have an engagement you do not care to break, and they will have to stay with the children themselves.

I think that will be a better plan than moving out. You say that you get along nicely together and since you do, there are advantages to you both in living together. You have company and protection, your children have the kind of help for their children that is hard to find or buy.

Your problem should not be a hard one to solve.

LOUISA.

Dear Louisa:

A married man has asked me for a date. He works in the office with me and his wife is very unsympathetic and does not understand him.

He is very attractive but I don't think I should go, do you?

ALLIE B.

Answer:

For heaven's sake, don't fall for that old line about the wife, who doesn't understand.

She probably understands him too well and knows what a rascal he is.

When a single girl dates a married man she is usually playing with fire and deserves to get burned.

LOUISA.

12 Cars Of Livestock To Enter Winter Fair

Alberta livestock to be exhibited in Toronto's Royal Winter Fair in November, has been approved by the Alberta Livestock Board. About 12 cars of livestock will be entered, the estimated entries totalling 24 horses, 38 beef cattle, 20 dairy cattle, 12 dual purpose cattle, 11 market cattle, 14 swine and 30 sheep.

Alberta breeders from whose herds livestock has been selected include:

HORSES: Clydesdale, William McDonald, Edmonton; Percherons, H. Arbuckle, Airdrie; Belgian, Hon. D. A. Ure, Edmonton.

CATTLE: Hereford, Victor Watson, Airdrie; Aberdeen Angus, Old Hermitage Farm, Edmonton; Market Cattle, University of Alberta, R. Y. Secord and Son, Winterburn; Red Poll, E. A. Atkinson, St. Albert; Holstein, J. W. Horsford, Edmonton.

SHEEP: Suffolk, C. H. Borwick, Drumheller.

SWINE: Yorkshire, Lord Rodney, Fort Saskatchewan, N. J. Shopland, Rochester.

What's in the Name ETZIKOM

The village of Etzikom derived its name from the Blackfoot word meaning valley, coulee; it was also known in Blackfoot as misloonsis-co or "cow springs coulee," as the Crow Indian war parties used to water here. Until 1916 the place was known as Endon P.O.

The first homesteaders in the district came in 1909 from the Dakotas. The first to come were Mr. and Mrs. Alex Terriff. In 1910 a large influx was experienced in the district. The community really began to develop around 1915 when the railway went through. The first general store was owned and operated by A. T. West of Macleod. The O'Neils built the first hotel.

Etzikom is some 85 miles east of Lethbridge with farming being the main occupation in this area.

ERITH

Erith is located some 11 miles west and 13 miles south of Edson. It is on the east branch of the Embarra river, and probably got its name after Erith, a town in Kent, England.

Mannville Entry Wins Swine Carcass Award

EDMONTON—An entry from J. C. Clennett of Mannville won first prize in swine carcass judging Friday at the Fall Show and Sale of the Edmonton Exhibition Association.

H. B. Row of Duffield was awarded second prize. Tied for third were D. A. Ure, Provincial Agriculture Minister; James Wylie of Vegreville and N. J. Shopland of Rochester.

In this competition the judges decided the merits of the live animal and then its carcass after it was slaughtered. Thomas Reed Jr. of Edmonton placed first in a similar competition for sheep carcasses.

Mr. Clennett's entry brought top price of 34 cents a pound, bid by Canada Packers Ltd. The second prize carcass brought 32 cents a pound and the third place entries sold for 30½ cents a pound.

The first prize sheep carcass was bought by James Paul of Edmonton for 65 cents a pound. The second place carcass brought 46 cents a pound.

A 39-pound lamb carcass netted $214.50 for the benefit of polio victims when it was resold twice. The lamb carcass was first bought by Philip Rock of Drumheller, at $1 a pound.

Mr. Rock then offered the lamb for resale with the proceeds for polio victims. After heavy bidding it was sold to Mr. Paul, manager of the Exhibition Association, for $3.00 a pound. Mr. Paul again put the carcass up for sale and it went to W. I. Davidson for $2.50.

There are some people in the community who have become rich in recent years who are now realizing that money does not solve their basic problems.

One day our science teacher was doing a chemical experiment in front of our class. I asked a question about the experiment and, without looking up, the teacher answered my question and concluded: "... do you understand it now, Rattler?"

I was so absorbed in watching the experiment that I forgot to reply and just nodded my head. A moment later the teacher said: "Why don't you answer, Rattler?" I replied, "I did, sir, I nodded my head." To which the teacher replied, "I did hear it rattle, but I couldn't tell whether it was 'up and down' or from 'side to side'."

It was several weeks before the other members of the class let me forget that answer.

"RATTLER."

Peavine, Alta.

Walking to meet my small daughter, a beginner in kindergarten, I met the mother of one of her classmates. Chatting with her, I spoke about my daughter's extreme timidity and said I hoped the other children wouldn't pick on her. Just then her child ran screaming to us, closely pursued by my child, who was striking her with a stick.

New Pulp Mill At Yates

International Resources Limited, of which Richard Randall is president, plans to construct a pulp mill at Yates in the Edson district it was recently reported. This company had a contract with the provincial government covering construction of a $6,000,000 mill, and the assurance of a supply of needed timber to operate it. However, the original contract has been allowed to lapse, it was stated, and negotiations are expected to be entered into for a more extensive project. Unofficially, it has been estimated that a new contract will call for construction of a mill valued in the neighborhood of $20,000,000.

Bang's Disease Of Cattle

No. 3 in series by Dr. E. A. Ballantyne, Director of Veterinary Services, Alberta Department of Agriculture.

The symptoms of this serious cattle disease are as follows: A cow may lose her calf prematurely at five to eight months of pregnancy. This is followed by other cows in the herd losing theirs too. In some herds a whole calf crop has been lost from the disease. Sometimes only 20-50 per cent of a calf crop is lost. That is serious though, as the cattleman's gross income in a couple years when these animals should be ready for the market will be down several hundreds or thousands of dollars.

The usual story with Bang's disease infection in a herd is that a cattleman buys a cow or more, doesn't get it blood-tested to see if it has the disease or not, brings it home, and after a while she loses her calf. This is followed by more cows giving birth to calves prematurely. Then some cows may have to be sold due to sterility from the disease, and the breeding program is upset. Usually, though, only the odd cow becomes sterile from the disease. Bang's disease has just about ruined many cattlemen. It causes an estimated $2,000,000 to $3,000,000 loss in Alberta annually.

News Items—1911

CROSSFIELD—Your local edi-tor, who is secretary-treasurer for the Crossfield and District Old Timers' Association, has in her possession a Chronicle dated March 24, 1911. The following is an excerpt: "T. Urquhart and Mr. Fraser were visitors to Air-drie on Sunday returning on Mon-day morning. On the way home Urquhart started to drive, when Fraser took the lines and ran over a culvert. Urquhart grabbed the lines and beat the train into Crossfield and reported ready for work at 9 o'clock in the morning."

Also the following advertise-ment will cause a lot of old timers to think back to Col. Boyle, the hero of Ypres, where he died for King and Country: "Singly or in teams, 100 head of horses, mostly broken, from 2-8 years old. Will sell on joint bankable notes or trade for cattle. — R. L. Boyle, Crossfield."

In 1911 No. 1 wheat was quoted in the Chronicle at 61c per bushel. Hogs dressed 8½c per lb.; steers, live weight, at 4c a lb. The paper abounded in ads of all description. L. C. Newson was editor at that time.

Her Gift

I have no gifts, she often said,
Although she never tired
Of doing loving little things,
For folks she most admired.

She cheered the sad and lonely,
With friendship's kindly ray,
And many a burdened heart,
She eased along its way.

She gladly gave her willing hands,
And held her heart out, too
For nothing was too great or small
For others she could do.

She always said, "I wasn't there,
When gifts were passed around."
But examples of her kindness
On every hand you found.

And up in heaven, she will find,
Her gift was great—of being kind.

BERYL RASMUSSEN,
Crossfield.
